Fine Black Pearl Jewellery & Sculpture
BORA BORA - MOOREA - TAHITI

FINE JEWELLERY

Woody Howard's recognizable style of sculptural art jewellery features the marriage of Tahitian black pearls with creative fluid sculptured settings. More than 30 years of sculpture experience has continually evolved Woody's award winning unique line of jewellery. Beautiful Tahitian black pearls are selected exclusively from Woody's private pearl farm, "Black Pearl Paradise", located on the island of Apataki, Tuamotu island chain, French Polynesia, where pearls of outstanding quality are produced.

Be assured that all our creations are crafted with passion and dedication out of the finest materials. From the first stage of the pearl's existence to the finished jewellery, we monitor all production stages to insure an irreproachable quality. The settings are crafted in regards to form using the full value of the material used, White Gold, Yellow Gold, and high grade Silver.
